EXPERIENCE

The Criterion Collection: Manager, Digital Development

New York, NY

- Led Criterion's marketing and development roadmaps and managed Criterion.com, specializing in content strategy, user experience, and interaction design.

Sept. 2009-present

Marketing:

- Expanded the Criterion brand presence to Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr and YouTube.
- Developed Criterion's Facebook strategy and voice, using a flexible mix of original video pieces, photography, and curated content.
- Grew Criterion's Facebook audience organically to almost 200,000 highly engaged fans.
- Crafted posts that reach hundreds of thousands of people with nearly zero ad spending.

Development and Design:

- Tripled Criterion.com's monthly unique visitors and doubled ecommerce revenue.
- Oversaw and implemented continuous, iterative design and usability improvements.
- Added Facebook Login to Criterion.com's signup flow and integrated Open Graph metadata across the site.
- Built up a coherent, customized web analytics suite for Criterion.com.
- Led development and design of My Criterion, a social layer where users can track their Blu-ray/DVD collections and create and share custom lists of films.
- Overhauled Criterion.com's ecommerce platform to optimize costs and efficiency.
- Conceptualized, wireframed, and led development of a dynamic sale landing page with real-time product inventory updates.
- Launched a rich product browser, with faceted filtering and Solr-powered search.
- Designed video player and slideshow/photo gallery templates for Criterion.com.
- Built an HTML5 video player fallback for mobile devices.

The Criterion Collection: Production Assistant, Online Video

New York, NY

- Created and managed a file-based workflow for subtitling, transcoding and uploading feature films and metadata to online platforms including Netflix, Hulu, and iTunes.
- Promoted Criterion films on services like The Auteurs (Mubi.com) and Hulu.
- Led video encoding and QA for Criterion.com's streaming rental service.
